(We would call the attention of the reader to the Report of the Worcester County Mechanics Association held in the city of Worcester Sept 1848) 112 Hot Blast Air Tight Cooking Stove, contributed by Gordon Williston Worcester This stove involves an entire new principle in applying the heat to the baking or broiling of meats The fine flavor of meat cooked directly upon the coals is the result of the action of the carbon To broil on coals or over coals in our best Stoves, where this flavor is acquired is both a difficult and disagreeable operation But in this stove a steak was broiled in three minutes without any smoke or odor escaping into the room It was evenly and well cooked and had all the pleasant twang of a coal broil A large oven immediately over the ordinary oven, is so constructed that the whole body of heat can be made to pass through it, forming for the time being a flue or the draft This arrangement secures all the qualities of a good broil or bake in meats without the labor usually attendant on such affairs It likewise has good radiating qualities, with large oven and convenient arrangements for cooking furniture —[Silver Medal

MRS. E. KIDDER'S
Cholera, Dysentery,
....AND....
Diarrhœa Cordial,
—AN—
Immediate and Perfect Remedy,
....FOR....
Cholera, Dysentery, Summer Complaints of Children, Diarrhœa, Sea Sickness, general Debility, &c
WHERE this all powerful antidote is at hand, Cholera is no longer to be seriously feared or looked upon with terror—as this Cordial will most assuredly cure the disease in the course of a very few hours if taken at the commencement—
It has been before the public for more than seventeen years and was the first article made known to the public as an
OF THE
CHOLERA.
It has been thoroughly tested in every country and every climate and its effect has every where proved the same,
SURE TO CURE,
even where the disease has advanced to its last stages

CHOLERA.
Accounts almost daily reach us of the ravages of the CHOLERA, both at home and abroad and of the little success which has thus far attended the attempts to check its frightful inroads on human life
Such being the fact it surely may be regarded as an era in modern discoveries that a medicine has been discovered possessing the power of checking the progress of the Cholera, and eradicating it from the system
Mrs Kidder would most respectfully call the attention of the public to this invaluable medicine, known as her
"CHOLERA, DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA CORDIAL."
Many thousand lives have been saved by this medicine when the disease had advanced to its last stages
It is hoped that every housekeeper will keep the Cordial at hand and if timely administered but little danger is to be apprehended from an attack of the Cholera, Dysentery or Diarrhœa.
This Cordial immediately checks the vomiting relieves the pains, stops the Diarrhœa and restores the bowels to a perfectly regular and healthy state however severe the attack may be or however low the patient may have become it invariably restores
The Severest Cases of Dysentery
are immediately counteracted the pains allayed the bowels healed and not unfrequently the bowels become perfectly regulated and restored in the short space of ten or twelve hours
Chronic Diarrhœa,
Either in children or adults of months or years continuance is most readily cured with this Cordial, notwithstanding they may be reduced to mere skeletons, it immediately strengthens, and shortly restores them to perfect health
Cholera Infantum.
It has saved the lives of many thousand children when reduced to death's door by this complaint—it gives them immediate relief, and they very soon recover
Sea Sickness.
It is a most pleasant and desirable remedy for Sea Sickness It checks the vomiting and readily restores the patient It invariably checks vomiting produced from any cause whatever
Children that are Teething,
if inclined to Diarrhœa should always be provided with this medicine, as it will keep the bowels regulated and keep off the Canker It is wholesome, safe and plea ant to the taste, and children are fond of it, and will take it without trouble or dislike.
For General Debility and Dyspepsia,
it is a most excellent restorative, giving a healthy tone to both the stomach and bowels, and prevents food from pressing or distressing the stomach
The public may rest assured that it contains neither opium or mineral substances, or anything that is in the least injurious to the constitution
CAUTION.
Be sure that you obtain MRS E KIDDER'S CHOLERA MORBUS DYSENTERY and DIARRHŒA CORDIAL, and you will get the only true and original article, which has ever been in the highest estimation by the public throughout the whole country
It is put up in bottles holding nearly a quart, intended for family use and sold at One Dollar per bottle

Holden's Alterative and TONIC MIXTURE,
IS the best combination known for changing the unhealthy secretions of the Stomach, and giving strength to that organ and for removing many troubles which are often attributed to impurity of the blood
Its action is that of a mild Alterative and Tonic, restoring health and strength often without producing any sensible evacuation, and without leaving behind any unpleasant effect on the constitution
By its use the appetite becomes regular and good digestion perfect sick head ache and many nervous disturbances growing out of imperfect digestion are generally cured persons of debilitated constitutions become healthy and strong by its use
By reason of the sympathy between the stomach and the skin many diseases of the latter grow out of a morbid action of the former, even when the ordinary symptoms of Dyspepsia are wanting and are cured by this medicine
Many troubles of children supposed to arise from worms are caused by a deranged state of the stomach and are removed by its use Persons both adults and children left feeble by protracted illness on the same principle are restored to health and vigor by taking it
It contains no poisonous ingredient, and cannot in any case do harm
Home Testimony.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
With U. S. Patent Office.
WASHINGTON
NO 22 STATE STREET, BOSTON.
IN 1840 the subscriber was appointed by the Commissioner of Patents Agent of the U S Patent Office, in accordance with the 10th Sec of Act of 37
Having relinquished the Agency for the transmission of Models and adopted a more expeditious mode of sending them to the Patent Office where by a Patent may be procured about six weeks earlier he continues to forward them free of expense—to prepare Caveats & Specifications Assignments and all the necessary Papers and Drawings for Patents and to render advice on legal and scientific matters respecting the same Patents secured in Europe and other countries
By application at this office inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents They also have the advantage of certainly explaining their inventions and of consulting in respect to them, matters, in general of paramount importance in order to obtain correct specifications and claims The experience of sixteen year's practice, an extensive collection of rare works decisions &c on mechanical subjects, the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington enable the subscriber to afford to inventors desirous of procuring Patents assistance and information which in other respects might be difficult of attainment
R H EDDY Solicitor of Patents

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—
During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents R H EDDY Esq, of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents There were few if any persons acting in that capacity who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill fidelity and success I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States and have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office EDMUND BURKE,

COOKING STOVE.
[We would call the attention of the reader to the Report of the Worcester County Mechanics Association, held in the city of Worcester, Sept 1848.]
112 Hot Blast Air Tight Cooking Stove contributed by Gordon Willston Worcester This stove involves an entire new principle in applying the heat to the baking or broiling of meats The fine flavor of meat cooked directly upon the coals is the result of the action of the carbon To broil on coals or over coals in our best Stoves where this flavor is acquired is both a difficult and disagreeable operation But in this stove a steak was broiled in three minutes without any smoke or odor escaping into the room It was evenly and well cooked and had all the pleasant twang of a coal broil A large oven immediately over the ordinary oven is so constructed that the whole body of heat can be made to pass through it, forming for the time being a flue for the draft This arrangement secures all the qualities of a good broil or bake in meats without the labor usually attendant on such affairs It likewise has good radiating qualities, with large oven and convenient arrangements for cooking furniture—[Silver Medal

Cholera, Dysentery,
...AND...
Diarrhœa Cordial,
—IS—
Immediate and Perfect Remedy,
...FOR...
Cholera, Dysentery, Summer Complaints of Children, Diarrhœa, Sea Sickness, general Debility, &c
WHERE the all powerful remedy is at hand Cholera is no longer to be seriously feared or looked upon with terror—as this Cordial will most surely cure the disease in the course of a very few hours if taken at the commencement—
It has been before the public for more than seventeen years and was the first article made known to the public as an
OF THE
CHOLERA
It has been thoroughly tested in every country and every climate, and its effect has every where proved the same
SURE TO CURE,
even when the disease has advanced to its last stage
CHOLERA.
Accounts almost daily reach us of the ravages of the CHOLERA both at home and abroad and of the little success which has thus far attended the attempts to check its fearful inroads on human life
Such being the fact it surely may be regarded as an era in modern discoveries that a medicine has been discovered possessing the power of checking the progress of the Cholera, and eradicating it from the system
Mrs Kidder would most respectfully call the attention of the public to this invaluable medicine known as her
"CHOLERA, DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA CORDIAL."
Many thousand lives have been saved by this medicine when the disease had advanced to its last stages
It is hoped that every housekeeper will keep the Cordial at hand and if timely administered but little danger is to be apprehended from an attack of the
Cholera, Dysentery or Diarrhœa
This Cordial immediately checks the vomiting relieves the pains, stops the Diarrhœa and restores the bowels to a perfectly regular and healthy state however severe the attack may be or however low the patient may have become it invariably restores
The Severest Cases of Dysentery
are immediately counteracted, the pains allayed the bowels healed, and not unfrequently the bowels become perfectly regulated and restored in the short space of ten or twelve hours
Chronic Diarrhœa,
Either in children or adults, of months or years continuance is most readily cured with this Cordial notwithstanding they may be reduced to mere skeletons, it immediately strengthens and shortly restores them to perfect health
Cholera Infantum.
It has saved the lives of many thousand children when reduced to death's door by this complaint—it gives them immediate relief, and they very soon recover
Sea Sickness.
It is a most pleasant and desirable remedy for Sea Sickness It checks the vomiting and readily restores the patient It invariably checks vomiting produced from any cause whatever
Children that are Teething,
if inclined to Diarrhœa should always be provided with this medicine as it will keep the bowels regulated and keep off the Canker It is wholesome pale and pleasant to the taste, and children are fond of it, and will take it without trouble or dislike.
For General Debility and Dyspepsia,
it is a most excellent restorative giving a healthy tone to both the stomach and bowels and prevents food from pressing or distressing the stomach
The public may rest assured that it contains neither opium or mineral substances, or anything that is in the least injurious to the constitution
CAUTION.
Be sure that you obtain MRS E. KIDDER'S CHOLERA MORBUS DYSENTERY and DIARRHŒA CORDIAL, and you will get the only true and original article which has ever been in the highest estimation by the public throughout the whole country
It is put up in bottles holding nearly a quart intended for family use, and sold at One Dollar per bottle

VALPARISO, May 19 h, 1849

Agreeable to promise, I shall endeavor to convey to you some ideas, respecting the city of Rio Janeiro, although, perhaps I cannot do it so well, as some others, still I shall no throw down my pen on that account, but do it as well as lies in my power The city is one of the first settled places in South America and has a great many attractions for the stranger The prospect on entering the harbor is very fine, vessels of every class, from the man of war to the coasting smack, may be seen safely riding at anchor, and from their tops, may be seen the flag of almost every nation on the globe At the entrance of the harbor on the left is a large rock, which from its peculiar form, has derived the name of sugar loaf It rises to the height of thirteen hundred feet, and serves as a land mark for vessels entering the harbor, as it can be seen a great distance at sea Near this are several small islands which are covered with a wild and beautiful vegetation, a house visible here and there, their white walls presenting a beautiful contrast to the vegetation around thus affording to the eye rather a pleasing aspect There are also two forts, which with the guns peeping from their snowy sides, add not a little to the scene On the right is a fortress called Santa Cruz It is built upon a solid rock, and from its size and appearance, in case of war, I should think would be a strong hold From this fort every vessel that enters or leaves the harbor is hailed If leaving it has to give the 'pass word and if they neglect to give it and do not heave too, a blank charge is fired from the fort and then if they still continue on their course, a shot is fired which generally has the desired effect The laws of the country are very strict They are a very jealous people and therefore very jealous of their rights

As soon as our ship came abreast the fort, the officer hailed us, through his speaking trumpet —where you coom from? How many days passage? putting the emphasis in both cases on the last word his bad English caused considerable merriment on board the ship Vessels that only touch there are not allowed to anchor nearer then two miles of the town, and the crew is not allowed to land till three custom house boats have boarded Guard boats are anchored between them and the city, to prevent any article being smuggled, these boats are about the size of our small class steamers, and built very much after the same fashion, having one mast and a small amount of sail to use in case they should be blown to sea Every boat that passes them, to or from the shore, are obliged to pass within hailing distance, or in case they suspect the boat, as being engaged in smuggling, it must be brought alongside, and searched Such is a sample of the laws of the country

A most as soon as our ship was anchored in the bay, and the custom house officer had been aboard (for no one is allowed to come on board or leave the ship till after that time) there was any amount of boats alongside manned by four negroes, their eyes sparkling with delight, to see so many passengers on board, calculating of course to return with a large amount of live ballast, and make a 'profitable run as the seafaring phrase is In a few minutes we found ourselves snugly seated in a boat with cushioned seats, and an awning over our heads propelled through the water at the rate of six miles an hour by four stout negroes, jabbering among themselves, like so many magpies These boats always land their passengers at the Largo do Polo, or Palace Square At this place the waters of the bay dash and loam against the stone parapet, and for boat pitches and rolls, with a violence that leads one to appreciate the value of the stone steps on which he can land while the boat is held fast alongside Of docks there are but very few The coast ing steamers, and steam ferry boats, which ply across the bay to a small town there, have wharfs built expressly for them, and I think those were the only ones I saw in Rio, excepting at the custom house — Merchant vessels, and all others, lie at anchor in the stream Near the landing place is a large build ng three stories high called the Hotel Pharoux, kept by a Frenchman The two upper stories only (like all other establishments of this kind in Rio) are occupied as a hotel The first story is occupied as an eating room adjoining which is a billiard room, from which the hotel takes its name As a matter of course, after living on salt provision as our principal food for something like a month, an eating room would be the first place we should visit Accordingly we went into the aforesaid eating room This room is quite large, and we found fifty or sixty persons sitting at the tables some of them eating others discussing the merits of a bottle of wine The greater part of them were Americans, who like ourselves had set down to enjoy once more the pleasure of eating a meal, without holding on with one hand (and the greater part of the time holding the plate in the other), I think food never tasted better to me than at this time, and you may rest assured that the roasted chickens and turkeys, together with other fixings, suffered a good deal in a short time, suffice it to say, I had to pay a dollar for my dinner The hotels in Rio, are very scarce, there being only six in the city, of one hundred and sixty thousand inhabitants, and some of them are not so large as private dwelling houses in our own country As a matter of course their charges are very high, especially at this time It was estimated that there were fifteen hundred Americans in the city at this time on their way to California, the principal part of them getting their meals on shore, and returning to their ships at night, thus enabling the people of Rio to reap quite a rich harvest, during the Californian's stay, as they asked the most exorbitant prices for every thing they offered for sale

A short distance from the hotel to the right, stands the Emperor s Palace, Don Pedro II — There is nothing very remarkable about it excepting its name It is one of the oldest buildings in the city, and shows it very evidently by the stone steps in front being very much worn It covers quite a space of ground, but is only two stories high I had the pleasure of seeing the Emperor and his wife He is quite a young man, twenty-four years of age, light complexion, about the middling size, and quite a good looking man His wife is a Sicilian and a sister to Prince de Joinville s wife When I saw them they were taking their morning ride

In front of the Palace is a fountain, from which the water spouts in a score of streams, and after being caught in buckets, is borne off by the natives on their heads

Almost all the business of this large commercial city is performed by slaves and it is surprising to see what enormous burdens they will carry on their heads In the principal streets they will be seen with burdens on their heads going in every direction

The coffee carriers go in troops, from five to twenty persons, of whom one takes the lead, and is called the captain These are the largest men that can be found Each one takes a bag of coffee upon his head, which will weigh one hundred and sixty pounds, and when all are ready, they start off upon a measured trot As soon as they start they begin to sing, and continue to do so till they unload their burden Some of them carry musical instruments in their hands which is known to all as having a powerful effect in exhilarating the spirits of the negro — Their masters are fully aware of the fact, and accordingly supply them with the needful — The impression which these sounds give to the stranger, is not soon forgotten The city is well supplied with water, by an aqueduct, that brings the water from a neighboring mountain, about four miles distant I visited the head of this aqueduct accompanied by a friend of mine It is formed by several small streams, made artificially, to run into one, and conducted to the city in a vaulted channel of mason work, sometimes running under the surface of the ground, at other places some distance above it This must have cost an immense amount of money, but probably less than it would if built in the United States, as the greater part of the work was done by slaves

The prospect from this side of the mountain is beautiful, and if we had time to climb to the top, I doubt not that we should have been amply repaid for our trouble, by the prospect from that place As we went along the road (which was only a mule path) we saw quite a number of negroes, with nets attached to long poles, engaged in catching butterflies and other insects, for some amateur natural ist some specimens of which were very beautiful Had I been his reward bound I should have improved the opportunity of preserving some specimens myself

Fruit of all kinds is abundant, and one is invited to eat at almost every rancho (farm house) he passes The people are very hospitable, and pay every attention to the stranger — One instance which I could not but notice — As we were passing by the house of an old Spaniard, his wife was washing near the path, she by accident spilt a little water on us at which the old Spaniard was quite indignant and exclaimed, "Throw water on the Americanos! I should think by their looks (they talked in Spanish) that it ended in quite a matrimonial quarrel I mention this to show with what respect the Americans are treated

The city is regularly laid out and paved, but some of the streets are very narrow, so much so that two drays meeting in the streets would have hardly room to turn out without running one wheel on the side walk The houses in the principal streets are used both as stores and dwelling houses, the stores being on the first floor, and families occupying the upper stories They are built of stone, and most of them are plastered on the outside, which gives the city a very handsome appearance Great attention is paid to lighting the streets, and in the evening the walls of the houses reflecting the light, make it almost as light as in the daytime — Merchants who employ clerks always board them, as there is a great lack of hotels and boarding houses in the city I saw several Yankee boys there (one from Maine) who were clerks in stores, they informed me they were getting good salaries, and liked the city very much

I called at Mr Parker s office, and as he was not very busy at the time, we took a walk thro the principal streets and he gave me considerable information respecting the city His health is good, although he has had a great amount of business to attend to of late, on account of there being so large a number of American vessels in port He resides out of town about four miles and is in his office only at certain portions of the day The office of Consul at Rio is quite an important one, and yields a large income Mr Parker informed that this year it would probably amount to twelve thousand dollars Who would not not like to live in as fine a country as this under these circumstances? The crew of one of the vessels in port, bound to California, were obliged to discharge their captain on account of drunkenness and bad usage Another had lost eight men with the Cholera, and was detained there, another spring a leak and was hauled up for repairs I pity their cases We have been very lucky so far, not having parted a rope Our vessel proves to be an extra sea boat

One thing I could not help noticing, (which by the way I think would be a good plan to be adopted in our own country,) the way which they pun sh slaves for drunkenness They are made to wear a tin mask, somewhat similar to the common mask, except it is made to cover the whole part of the head, as far down as the neck It is made to open in the middle and clap on, and is fastened behind with a pad lock, only being holes for the eyes, and nose, thus completely covering his mouth This is quite a novel plan, but very effectual Chain gangs of criminals, with a company of soldiers to guard them, may be seen often, going or returning from their work The slaves generally appear to be as happy a class of people as there is, although I doubt not that they are sometimes very much abused There are a great many other things I should like to touch upon respecting the city, but I have not time nor space therefore I shall have to postpone it till a more convenient opportunity

Our passage around the Horn, has been rather a long and tedious one Head winds and storms seemed to be our lot since we sailed from Rio It is now fifty six days since we sailed from that port, and if we had had fair winds, we should not have been more than thirty five We have experienced two gales, but neither of them the worst kind In one we laid to, thirty six hours Cape Horn may well be called the stormy Cape for there, more particularly, the waters of the sea seem to be at war with all the other elements. After getting around into the Pacific, the weather has been much better, although the north winds prevailed to some extent, still it has been pleasant, compared with Cape Horn, with its cold winds and its repeated squalls of snow and hail The remainder of our voyage will be more pleasant as we shall have the trade winds the greater part of the way — Since we arrived here, we have heard any amount of news respecting the Gold diggings All accounts are flattering, and go to confirm those we heard before starting To day, I have been to see a lot of the precious ore, that arrived from the gold digging since we came into port It belonged to a commission merchant in this place, and amounted to about three million dollars He shew us one piece in its natural state, just as it was dug from the ground that weighed six ounces I have seen several from California, direct, and they all report gold plenty, enough for to make United States rich One man I talked with, told me that one thing was certain, if a person went to California and was temperate, and indulged in no excesses, he was bound to be worth a fortune in a few months — This man had just come from San Francisco There is a report here that the steamer that plys from Panama up to San Francisco has stopped running on account of all her hands deserting her at the latter port, as for the correctness of this report I cannot vouch Vessels are in great demand here, and the passage from here up is three hundred dollars There is now about eight American vessels in port, bound to California, among which is the Caroline,— Schr Mary W Eliza, and the Pharsalia, the P sailed this morning

There is a report that the ship Brooklyn was seen to go down off Cape Horn She had one hundred and fifty passengers I should be rather inclined to believe the report true, as a gentleman told me that I think could be relied on — The ship Oxford was seen off Cape Horn dismasted Business in the city is brisk and American coin is as plenty, and more so than the Chilian There has been a not any amount of American Vessels in here, and they have left considerable of an amount of money Great excitement prevails among the Californians and those who are in the habit of indulging in spirituous liquors, are as the sailors say, as thrie sheet to the wind There will a great many that go to California that never will see home again on this account Accounts state that there is a great many drunken fights, and in many cases, the parties are killed The Chilians think very highly of the American people, and permit them to do pretty much as they please The Governor was heard to say that he supposed at first the people that were going to California from the United States were principally emigrants, but he said if these are emigrants he would like to see the aristocracy The Chilians are a fine people, I like them much open hearted, free and generous It is rather singular, but it is the custom among the higher classes, (if they are at the door of their houses,) to invite you in when seated a cup of coffee is handed you, (which in all cases you must accept or it would be taken as an insult) an interpreter is sent for, and we have a fine chat When you leave, the ladies always kiss you, as a token of respect I think their custom is preferable to the cold formalities of the American people — The Chilians are a very handsome people, and especially the ladies, some of whom are beautiful The men are straight, of and good forms and very gentleman like in their deportment I must draw my letter to a close as I shall send it by the sloop of war Dale, which sails tomorrow, and her bags are about closing I have many other things to say, had I time and space, but will endeavor to write you again after I arrive at San Francisco

Very Respectfully

Bangor and Orono Railroad.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

ORONO, Aug 27 1849

The inhabitants of this town at a legal meeting this day held, voted two hundred and sixty two, to two to accept the act of the Legislature authorizing them to subscribe for shares in the stock of the Bangor and Orono Railroad to an amount not exceeding $25,000 The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, giving pledge of liberal individual subscription

We think that a Railroad on the broad guage (to connect with the Waterville road, to form the commencement of the great line east to the British Provinces) passing by North Bangor Stillwater, Great Works to Oldtown and connecting with Bradley and Milford is now assured That it will be one of the very best paying roads no one who is acquainted with the amount and character of the business between these flourishing villages and Bangor, can doubt

Give me your Baby.

We saw a poor woman sitting on the steps in front of a Hotel on Fifth street, the other morning holding a pale yet beautiful infant in her arms in one hand she had a saucer containing a few pennies She was about thirty and neatly clad, although the dress was of the cheapest material One could see that her position in life had been better perhaps a happy one for years

Our attention was arrested by a crowd of well dressed ladies, who were standing around and endeavoring to beg the baby

'What a sweet child' said one

'Poor little dear' said another, 'how I could love it, if it was my own

The mother drew the child closer to her bosom, but said not a word Another lady, in whose face one could see at a glance a fountain of charity and love, seemed more intent in the child than any other 'Give me your baby, said she, and I will take good care of it

The poor women looked up for the first time, with a face so melancholy, and the tears trembled in her eyes "No, madam, I thank you for your kind feelings but I cannot part with the only thing I have left to love on earth!

This was enough The lady dropped a half eagle upon the saucer, and turned away in tears The others opened their purses, and placed their offerings in charitable sociability with the gold piece We added our mite, and walked away a happier and better man — Cincinnati Gem

A Boston Lady Lost in the Mountains.

The North Adams Transcript gives the following incident of an excursion of Bostonians to the hills of old Berkshire

"A party of Bostonians came up to this place from Pittsfield, where they were making a stay, one day last week for the purpose of visiting Grey Lock In coming down the mountain one of the ladies passed on in advance of the rest of the party and taking a wrong track missed her way, and followed the Hooper path till she came to the house of a Mr Pettee, near South Williamstown, who brought her here in safety about half past two the next morning. The rest of the party not overtaking her, made some search on the way but thought she might possibly have come on to this village Reaching here and finding she had not returned, a party was raised and sent in search of her, remaining of the mountain and continuing the search all night"

FRIENDSHIP.

Oh prized and loved through many a year
Of pain and sorrow past a way
Why shouldst thou lady blush to hear,
Why should I think it wrong to say
How near in pure regard thou art
To the best feelings of my heart?
And yet my inmost thoughts of thee
The sinless eye of God might see
Nor would it the dim ray of light
That shines around the eternal throne
If of the angels the most bright
Such the rights of mortal kind should own
A master love I ever have known
But it has ever seemed to be Like that regard which thou hast shown
The same in weal or woe I prove Nor were I worthy to be blest
With friendship so sincere and true,
Unless my very soul confessed
Esteem as pure and sinless too

DIED:

In this city 24th inst, George E Treadwell, son of H and S Treadwell aged 8 months.

His was the morning hour
And he hath passed in beauty from the day
A bud,—no sooner a flower
Torn in its sweetness from the parent's embrace
The death wind swept him to his soft repose,
As frost in Spring time blights the early rose

DEAR SIR,—I have used your Health Restoring Bitters in my practice and have found them very serviceable in Dyspeptic Hysterics General Debility, and particularly in Habitual Costiveness I consider it one of the best remedies in use Yours &c IRA RUSSELL M D

TEMPLE, N H Jan 17 1849

Dr S Jewett

Dear Sir—I have examined your Pulmonary Elixir and am well satisfied I had it in my the full confidence of the common Elixir as being what I purpose to be one of the most safe and sure remedy for all the diseases to which the respiratory organs are subject It may be used with much more safety than almost any other article offered for this purpose, inasmuch as the danger of impaired action of those organs is the frequent and legitimate result of most other remedies of the class by reason of their opiate character is by this, entirely obviated.

The physician who should meet with it in families, would find it a ready assistant, by which his own labor in the dispensation of medicine would be obviated, and the efforts for relief eventually aided

With much consideration your obed't servant N KINGSBURY, M D

SIR—Having used your Health Restoring Bitters and Pulmonary Elixir, to a considerable extent, in my family, for the past winter, I would beg leave to bear testimony to the efficacy of those medicines, the former for restoring loss of appetite, for headache, languor, and general debility the latter for coughs and sore throat.—In fact I think no family should be without those restoratives always at hand thereby frequently superseding the necessity of calling in a physician Your ob't serv't, CALEB S CARTER

RHEUMATISM

This is only one of more than four thousand cases of Rheumatism that Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla has cured The most severe and chronic cases are weekly eradicated by its extraordinary virtues

James Cummings, Esq, one of the assistants in the Lunatic Asylum, Blackwell's Island, in the gentleman spoken of in the following letter

Blackwell's Island Sept 14, 1847

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have suffered terribly for nine years with the Rheumatism, considerable of the time I could not eat, sleep or walk I had the almost distressing pains and my limbs were terribly swollen I have used four bottles of your Sarsaparilla and they have done me more than one thousand dollars worth of good I am so much better—indeed, I am entirely relieved You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted Yours respectfully,

JAMES CUMMINGS

FITS! FITS! FITS!

Dr Townsend not having tested his Sarsaparilla in cases of Fits of course never recommended it, and was surprised to receive the following from an intelligent and respectable Farmer in Westchester County

Fordham, August 13, 1847

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have a little girl, seven years of age who has been several years afflicted with Fits we tried almost every thing for her, but without success, at last, although we could find no recompensation in your circulars for cases like hers, we thought, as she was so very delicate health, we would give her a bottle of your Sarsaparilla, and are very glad we did, for it not only restored her strength, but she has had no return of the Fits, to our great pleasure and surprise She is fast becoming rugged and hearty, for which we feel grateful Yours respectfully,

JOHN BUTLER, Jr

FEMALE MEDICINE

Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla is a sovereign and speedy cure for Incipient Consumption, Barrenness, Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb, Costiveness, Piles, Leucorrhœa or Whites, obstructed or difficult Menstruation Incontinence of Urine or involuntary discharge thereof and for the general prostration of the system—no matter whether the result of inherent cause or causes produced by irregularity, illness, or accident Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human frame Persons all weakness and languidness, from taking it at once become robust and full of energy under its influence It immediately counteracts the nervousness of the female frame which is the great cause of Barrenness—It will not be expected of us, in cases of so delicate a nature, to exhibit certificates of cures performed, but we can assure the afflicted, that hundreds of cases have been reported to us Thousands of cases where families have been without children after using a few bottles of this invaluable medicine, have been blessed with fine healthy offspring

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES

This extract of Sarsaparilla has been expressly prepared in reference to female complaints No female who has reason to suppose she is approaching that critical period, The turn of life," should neglect to take it as it is a certain preventative for any of the numerous and terrible diseases to which females are subject at that critical time of life This period may be delayed for several years by using this medicine Nor is it less valuable for those who are approaching womanhood as it is calculated to assist nature by quickening the blood and invigorating the system Indeed this medicine is invaluable for all the delicate diseases to which women are subject

It braces the whole system, renews permanently the natural energies—by removing the impurities of the body, not so far stimulating as to produce subsequent relaxation—which is the case of most medicines taken for female weakness and disease By using a few bottles of this medicine, many severe and painful surgical operations may be prevented

GREAT BLESSING TO MOTHERS AND CHILDREN

It is the safest and most effectual medicine for purifying the system, and relieving the sufferings attendant upon child birth ever discovered It strengthens both the mother and child promotes pain and disease, increases and enriches the blood—those who have used it think it indispensable It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents diseases attendant upon childbirth!—in Costiveness, Cramps, Swelling of the Feet, Dependency, Heartburn, Vomiting, Pain in the Back and Loins, False Pains, Hemorrhage, and in regulating the secretions and equalizing the circulation it has no equal The great bounty of this medicine is it is always safe, and the most delicate use it must successfully vary few cases require any other medicine—in some a little Castor Oil or Magnesia is useful Exercise in the open air, and light food with this medicine, will always ensure a safe and easy confinement

BEAUTY AND HEALTH

Cosmetics, Chalk, and a variety of preparations generally in use when applied to the face, very soon spoil it of its beauty They close the pores of the skin, and check the circulation, which, when nature is not thwarted by disease or powder, or the skin defiled by the alkaline used in some, constitutes its own production in the "humus face divine," as well as in the garden of richand delicately tinted and variegated flowers A free, active and healthy circulation of the fluids or the coursing of the pure, rich blood to the extremities is that which paints the countenance in the most exquisite beauty It is that which imparts the indescribable shades and flashes of loveliness that delighted but none can describe This beauty is the offspring of nature—not of powder or soap If there is not a free and healthy circulation, there is no beauty If the lady is fair as driven snow, if she paints and uses cosmetics, and the blood is thick, cold, and impure, she is not beautiful. If she be brown or yellow, and there is pure and active blood, it gives a rich bloom to the cheeks, and a brilliancy to their eyes, that is fascinating

This is the reason why the southern, and especially the Spanish ladies, are so much admired Ladies in the north who take but little exercise or are confined in close rooms, or have spoiled their complexion by the application of deleterious mixtures, if they wish to regain elasticity of step, buoyant spirits, sparkling eyes, and beautiful complexions, they should use Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla Thousands who have tried it, are more than astonished, are delighted. Ladies of every station crowd our office daily

NOTICE TO THE LADIES.

Those that imitate Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla have invariably called their stuff a great remedy for females, &c, &c, and have copied our bills and circulars which relate to the complaints of women, word for word—other men who put up medicine have since the great success of Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla in complaints incident to females, recommended theirs, although previously they did not. A number of these Mixtures, Pills, &c, are injurious to females, as they aggravate disease, and undermine the constitution.

SCROFULA CURED.

This Certificate conclusively proves that this Sarsaparilla has perfect control over the most obstinate diseases of the blood Three persons cured in one house is unprecedented

THREE CHILDREN

Dr Townsend Dear Sir—I have the pleasure to inform you that three of my children have been cured of the Scrofula by the use of your excellent medicine—They were afflicted very severely with bad sores; have taken only four bottles, it took them away, for which I feel myself under great obligation Yr's respectfully,

NEW AND DISCOVERY

GRAY HAIR can be restored to its original color, whether Auburn, Brown or Black Sandy Light or Red Hair can be matched with any darker shade, surpassing in beauty even the most natural locks, retaining the gloss and softness of the original Hair, by using O M Ballard's

Permanent Liquid Hair Dye,

Of one preparation, which is entirely different from all other preparations of Hair Dye now before the public Is free from all injurious properties, which can be tested by taking a lock of the finest and most delicate Hair of an infant, and color it with the Dye, which will not impair its gloss or its texture in the slightest degree, which is the best evidence which can be given that it is not injurious On the contrary, it improves the lustre of the Hair, promotes its growth, and prevents it from falling out and unlike other preparations, after the Hair is colored and dry, will not crock, fade, or wash out

In short, from its peculiar delicacy, softness and easy application, it is worthy the attention of all who may wish to improve the color of the Hair as it will make any shade from a white to a jet black It is now used to an unaccountable extent, by persons who have prematurely turned gray, and others whose Hair is of no desirable color, which they restore or exchange for a beautiful Auburn Brown or Black, without any additional preparation or the slightest trouble
